RICHART'S Shoe House.

NO 13 EAST SECOND STREET, SEYMOUR, INDIANA.

As it was Mary's business, and not the witness, to make Mrs. Jeffrey's bed in the morning, Loretta could think of no excuse for approaching her mistress's room at this moment; but later, when letters came, followed by various messages and some visitors, she went more than a dozen times to Mrs. Jeffrey's door. She was not admitted, nor were her appeals answered, except by a sharp "Go away!"

Nor was Miss Tuttle received any better, though she tried more than once to see her sister, especially as night came on and the hour approached for Mr. Jeffrey's return. Mrs. Jeffrey was simply determined to remain alone, and when dinner time arrived, and no Mr. Jeffrey, she could be induced to open her door only wide enough to take in the cup of tea which Miss Tuttle insisted upon sending her.

The witness here confessed that she had been very much excited by these unusual proceedings and by the effect which they seemed to have on the lady just mentioned, so she was ready to notice that Mrs. Jeffrey's hand shook like that of an old and palsied woman when she reached out for the tray.

Gladly would Loretta have caught one glimpse of her face, but it was hidden by the door; nor did Mrs. Jeffrey answer a single one of her questions. She simply closed her door and kept it so till toward midnight, when Miss Tuttle, coming into the hall, ordered the house to be closed for the night. Then the long shut door softly swung open; but, before any one could reach it, it was again pulled to and locked.

The next day brought no relief. Miss Tuttle, who had changed greatly during this unhappy day and night, succeeded no better than before in getting access to her sister, nor could Loretta gain the least word from her mistress till toward the latter part of the afternoon, when that lady, ringing her bell,

NEW THOUGHTS.

Are you growing more attractive as you advance in life?

"Given a healthy body," says Dr. R. V. Pierce, the specialist in women's diseases, of Buffalo, N. Y., "and a healthy mind, and everyone can cultivate and enjoy happiness."

We must eat properly and digest well to be beautiful. It is a fact that any form of dyspepsia may in a few days transform a clear, white skin into a mass of pimples and black spots. A beautiful woman has the beauty of her stomach.

Dr. Pierce's Discovery mainly gains a person's nutrition by enabling one to eat, retain, digest and assimilate the proper nutritious food. It overcomes the gastric irritability and symptoms of indigestion, and thus the person is saved from those symptoms of fever, dyspepsia, headache, etc., which are so common. A tonic made up largely of alcohol will shrink the corpuscles of the blood and make them weaker for resistance.

"This is to certify that I have used Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, think it is the greatest medicine in the world," writes Mrs. V. M. Young, of West W. Va. "I had dyspepsia in its worst form. I decided to try your medicine. I used five bottles, and now I am doing my own housework. A number of my friends also are using Dr. Pierce's medicine and they recommend it highly. May God bless you in your grand work."

Dr. Pierce believes that a tonic made with alcohol will shrink the red blood corpuscles and make the system weak for resistance; that is why he avoided the use of any alcohol or narcotics in his "Medical Discovery," which contains the pure extract from roots and herbs without a particle of alcohol.

Accept no substitute for "Golden Medical Discovery." There is nothing "just as good" for dyspepsia or debility.

Biliousness is cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets.

had not slept the night before, or if she had laid her head anywhere it had been on the rug already spoken of.

These signs of extreme mental suffering, so much more extreme than any Loretta had ever before witnessed, frightened her so that the tray shook in her hand as she set it down on the table among the countless objects Mrs. Jeffrey always had about her. The noise seemed to startle her mistress, who had walked to the window after opening the door, for she wheeled impatiently about and Loretta passed her face. It was as if a light had passed over it. Once gay and animated beyond the power of any one to describe, it had become in twenty-four hours a ghost's face, with the glare of some awful resolve on it; or so it would appear from the way Loretta described it.

Loretta, who was evidently accustomed to seeing her mistress arrayed in brilliant colors and much bejeweled, laid great stress on the fact that, though it was on the verge of evening and she was evidently going out, she was dressed in black cloth and without even a diamond or a dower to relieve its severe simplicity. Her hair, too, which was always her pride, was piled in a careless mass upon her head as if she had tried to arrange it herself and had forgotten what she was doing while her fingers were but half through their work. There was a cloak lying on a chair near which she was standing and she held a hat in her hand, but Loretta saw no gloves. As the maid's glance and that of her mistress crossed, Mrs. Jeffrey spoke, and the effort she made in doing so naturally frightened the girl still more. "I am going out," were her words. "I may not be home till late—What are you looking at?"

Loretta declared that the words took her by surprise and that she did not know what to say, but managed to cover up her embarrassment by intimating that if her mistress would let her touch up her hair a bit she would make her look more natural.

At this suggestion Mrs. Jeffrey cast a glance in the glass and impetuously declared, "It doesn't matter." But she seemed to think better of it the next minute; for, throwing herself in a chair, she bade the girl to bring a comb and sat quietly enough, though evidently in a great tremor of haste and impatience, while Loretta combed her hair and put it up in the old way.

But the old way was not as becoming as usual, and Loretta was wondering if she ought to call in Miss Tuttle when Mrs. Jeffrey jumped to her feet and went over to the table and began to eat with the feverish haste of one who forces herself to take food in spite of hurry and distaste.

This was the moment for Loretta to leave the room, but she did not know how to do so. She felt herself fixed to the spot and stood watching Mrs. Jeffrey till that lady, suddenly becoming conscious of the girl's presence, turned, and in the midst of the moans which broke unconsciously from her lips said with a pitiable effort at her old manner:

"Go away, Loretta; I am ill; have been ill for two days. I don't like people to look at me like that!" Then, as the girl shrank back, she added in a breaking voice, "When Mr. Jeffrey comes home"—and said no more for several minutes, during which she clutched her throat with both hands and struggled with herself till she got her voice back and found herself able to repeat:

"When Mr. Jeffrey comes, if he does come, tell him that I was right about the way that novel ended. Remember that you are to say to him the moment you see him that I was right about the novel and that he is to look and see if it did not end as I said it would. And, Loretta"—here she rose and approached the speaker with a sweet, appealing look which brought tears to the impressionable girl's eyes—"don't go gossiping about me downstairs. I shan't be sick long. I am going to be better soon, very soon. By the time you see me here again I shall be quite like my old self. Forget how—how"—and Loretta said she seemed to have difficulty in finding the right word here—"how childish I have been."

Of course Loretta promised, but she is not sure that she would have had the courage to keep all this to herself if she had not heard Mrs. Jeffrey stop in Miss Tuttle's room on her way out. That relieved her and enabled her to go downstairs to her own supper with more appetite than she had thought ever to have again. Alas, it was the last good meal she was able to eat for days! In three hours afterward a man came from the station house with the news of Mrs. Jeffrey's suicide in the horrible old house in which she had been married only two weeks before.

As this had been a continuous narrative and concisely told, the coroner had not interrupted her. When at this point a little gasp escaped Miss Tuttle and a groan broke from Francis Jeffrey's hitherto sealed lips the feelings of the whole assemblage seemed to find utterance. A young wife's misery culminating in death on the very spot where she had been so lately married! What could be more thrilling or appealing more closely to the general heart of humanity? But the cause of that misery! This was what every one present was eager to have explained. This is what we now expected the coroner to bring out. But instead of continuing on the line he had opened up he proceeded to ask:

"Where were you when this officer brought the news you mention?"

"In the hall, sir. I opened the door for him."

"And to whom did he first mention his errand?"

"To Miss Tuttle. She had come in just before him and was standing at the foot of the stairs."

"What! Was Miss Tuttle out that evening?"

"Yes; she went out very soon after Mrs. Jeffrey left. When she came in she said that she had been around the block, but she must have gone around it more than once, for she was absent two hours."

"Did you let her in?"

"Yes, sir."

"And she said she had been around the block?"

"Yes, sir."

"Did she say anything else?"

"She asked if Mr. Jeffrey had come in."

"Anything else?"

"Then if Mrs. Jeffrey had returned."

"To both of which questions you answered?"

"A plain 'No.'"

"Now tell us about the officer."

"He rang the bell almost immediately after she did. Thinking she would want to slip upstairs before I admitted any one, I waited a minute for her to go, but she did not do so, and when the officer stepped in she—"

"Well?"

"She shrieked."

"What! Before he spoke?"

"Yes, sir."

"Just at sight of him?"

"Yes, sir."

"Did he wear his badge in plain view?"

"Yes; on his breast."

"So that you knew him to be a police officer?"

"Yes."

"And Miss Tuttle shrieked at seeing a police officer?"

WORSE AND WORSE

For the Democrats Are the Returns of Tuesday's Election.

"SOLID SOUTH" BROKEN

Missouri For the First Time in Thirty Years Casts Her Vote For Republican President.

This, However, Does Not Prevent the Election of Folk Who Achieves Great Personal Victory.

New York, Nov. 10.—With the election returns still incomplete, the plurality of President Roosevelt in the nation according to all indications will exceed 1,500,000, the greatest plurality ever given an American candidate. The nearest approach to this vote was in 1896, when McKinley received a plurality approximating 850,000, and in 1872, when Grant received 702,991 plurality.

Today the interest centers in Missouri and Maryland. Later returns indicate that the former state is in the Republican column so far as presidential electors are concerned, but that Joseph W. Folk, the Democratic candidate, has been elected governor. In Maryland the presidential vote will probably be cast for President Roosevelt. In the other states it is simply a question of pluralities.

The "solid south" was broken by the notable defection of Missouri—this section of the country usually having thirteen states in the Democratic column. The figures today show but twelve states, with 123 votes for Judge Parker.

President Roosevelt carried all the Northern states—except one, in fact—and today he has 343 electoral votes. The banner state is Pennsylvania. Twenty-four hours after the polls closed the returns from this state indicated that Roosevelt's plurality would reach 485,000. Next came Illinois, where the president polled approximately 220,000 votes more than did Judge Parker. Ohio gave Roosevelt 200,000, and New York 174,000.

The New York city returns are still incomplete, but the amazement over the result has not subsided. Judge Parker carried Greater New York by nearly 41,000 votes.

In general, the situation is chiefly interesting because of the fact that the tickets in many of the states were cut. President Roosevelt ran ahead of his ticket in many localities, notably in Massachusetts, where he secured a plurality of 86,000 votes, while the Republican candidate for governor was defeated by 35,000. In that state the legislature is Republican and the entire Republican ticket with the exception of governor was elected. In Missouri circumstances are similar.

In Nebraska the definite announcement that the legislature is Republican disposes of the statement that Wm. J. Bryan had aspirations for a United States senatorship. In that state, too, the governorship is in doubt, and it will require official returns to determine who is elected. Both sides claim a victory.

There is a curious situation in Minnesota, where Roosevelt secured 125,000 plurality, but where a Democratic governor and a Republican lieutenant governor were elected. The election of a Democratic governor is the second in the history of the state.

As interesting to the voter as anything are the statements issued by Judge Parker and William J. Bryan. Mr. Parker in his statement said: "Deeply as I regretted leaving the bench at the time of it, in the presence of overwhelming defeat I do not lament it. I shall never seek nomination for public office, but shall, to the best of my ability, serve the party that has honored me, and through the party serve the country. The party has in the near future a great mission. Before long the people will realize that the tariffed trusts and illegal combinations are absorbing the wealth of the nation."

In his statement Mr. Bryan said, referring to Judge Parker: "He did as well as he could. He was the victim of unfavorable conditions, and of a mistaken party policy. The result was due to the fact that the Democratic party attempted to be conservative in the presence of conditions that demanded radical action."

Lafollette Is Safe.
Milwaukee, Nov. 10.—The result of the election in Wisconsin shows that Roosevelt ran ahead of every ticket and carried the state by a plurality estimated at between 60,000 and 75,000; that Governor Lafollette has been re-elected by a plurality of about 50,000, and that the congressional complexion remains unchanged from two years ago.

The Prohibition Vote.
Chicago, Nov. 10.—"Prohibitionists are well satisfied with the showing made in the election," said Oliver W. Stewart, national chairman of the party. "Returns received at national headquarters in this city indicate that Dr. Swallow, our presidential candidate, polled at least 300,000 votes."

Both Won in Minnesota.
St. Paul, Nov. 10.—When all the returns shall have been received it is claimed now that Roosevelt's majority will run close to 125,000, if not more. John A. Johnson (Dem.) and Ray W. Jones (Rep.) were elected governor and lieutenant governor respectively. The election of a Democratic governor is the second in the history of the state.

Folk Receives Triumphant.
Kansas City, Nov. 10.—Roosevelt has carried Missouri by 10,000 to 15,000. The only Democratic state candidate elected is Folk for governor.

who made a remarkable race against the Roosevelt landslide. His plurality will be about 25,000. The legislature is in doubt, with chances favoring a Republican body to select Senator Cockrell's successor.

Colorado's Figures.
Denver, Col., Nov. 10.—Roosevelt's plurality in Colorado has been increased by later returns and may run above 15,000. Republicans and Democrats claim the election of governor and congressman-at-large and the Republicans threaten to contest the state election on the ground of alleged frauds in Denver.

Where Debs Stands.
New York, Nov. 10.—William Malloy, national secretary of the Socialist party, wires to a local newspaper that incomplete returns justify an estimate of 600,000 votes cast for Debs and Hanford. He says Illinois leads with 75,000 votes, of which 42,000 were cast in Chicago.

Complete Returns Required.
Omaha, Neb., Nov. 10.—Probably complete returns will be required to determine who is elected governor of Nebraska. Outside of governor, however, the Republicans have made a clean sweep on national, state, congressional and legislative tickets.

California's Vote In.
San Francisco, Nov. 10.—Roosevelt's plurality in this state will exceed 100,000. The full delegation of eight congressmen will be Republican and overwhelming majority in the legislature insures the election of a Republican senator to succeed Senator Barf.

In Gassaway's State.
Parkersburg, W. Va., Nov. 10.—The Democrats concede that Roosevelt has carried the state by over 10,000, while the Republicans claim that Roosevelt's majority will be the largest ever given to any candidate by the state and may exceed 30,000.

Look at Pennsylvania!
Philadelphia, Nov. 10.—Complete returns have been received from more than half the counties in Pennsylvania. If the present ratio of increase continues Roosevelt's plurality in this state will reach nearly 450,000.

New York's Showing.
New York, Nov. 10.—According to revised returns of the vote in the state Roosevelt's plurality over Parker is 174,691, and that of Higgins for governor over Herrick is 76,822.

The Result in Washington.
Seattle, Wash., Nov. 10.—Roosevelt electors have carried this state by over 30,000 votes.

WILL VISIT PRESIDENT
Japanese Prince Is Now Speeding Across Country.

San Francisco, Nov. 10.—Prince Saduaro Fushimi, cousin of the emperor of Japan, who comes to this country to pay a special visit to the president of the United States, has arrived by the liner Manchuria. He refused to be interviewed, saying that his visit was purely one of courtesy. He was accompanied by a suite of seven members. The party left for Washington this morning.

West Virginia Election Tragedy.
Huntington, W. Va., Nov. 10.—During an argument over the election Charles Blake shot and killed Hunter Reynolds last night.

TERSE TELEGRAMS
Roosevelt and Fairbanks will receive 343 electoral votes; Parker and Davis 133.

The Japanese Prince Fushimi has arrived in this country on a visit of courtesy to the president.

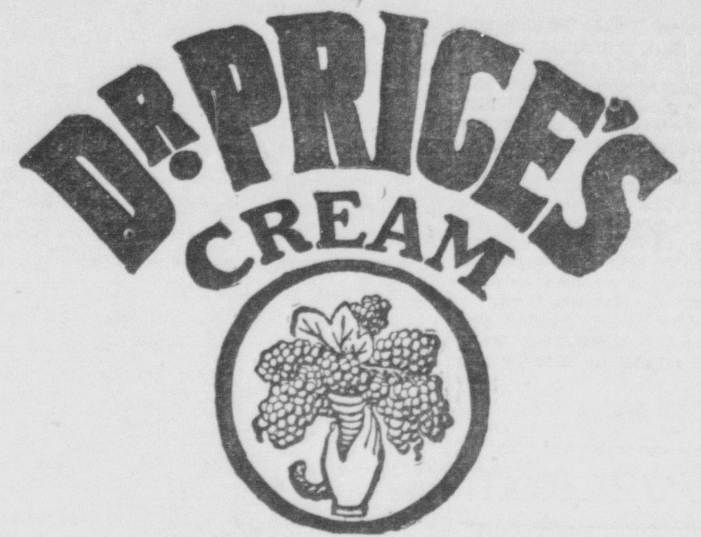

Chicago won a victory in her fight for a new charter with about 70,000 votes more than were necessary.

It is reported that the Japanese have completely silenced the forts on Rihlung and Sussung mountains at Port Arthur.

Mr. Bryan has issued a long statement urging the Democratic party to look to the future. "For ours is and must be the cause of the masses," says he.

James P. Storm, county treasurer at Prescott, Ariz., was found bound and gagged and locked in the vault of his office. The treasury had been robbed of $15,000.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 10.—The Russian inquiry into the reported firing on the German fishing vessel Sonntag by the Russian second Pacific squadron in the North sea on Oct. 21, having established to the satisfaction of the authorities that one of the Russian warships did fire upon the German vessel, with the result that she lost her fishing nets, Russia has agreed to pay full compensation to the owner of the Sonntag.

LAUDATION FOR STOESSEL

Port Arthur Garrison Fills Russian Hearts With Pride.
St. Petersburg, Nov. 10.—There is the greatest rejoicing here at the failure of the recent Japanese attacks on Port Arthur. The papers are filled with columns of praise, interspersed with poems eulogizing the gallant defense made by General Stoessel and the heroic garrison. The firm conviction prevails here that General Stoessel will never surrender and that if the fortress falls the garrison will go down fighting. According to information received by the war office 50,000 is a low estimate of Japanese before Port Arthur.

Citizen Volunteers Give Aid.
Chefoo, Nov. 10.—The Japanese continue to bombard Port Arthur and the shells are falling so incessantly that the Russians have practically abandoned the repair of the works protecting the harbor. Citizen volunteers and the police are now reinforcing the garrisons of the forts, according to the stories to Chinese arriving here, sixty of whom left Port Arthur on November 8 owing to the price of food.

Quiet at Mukden.
Mukden, Nov. 10.—All is quiet on both the Russian and the Japanese lines south of this place. Both armies continue the work of trenching and reinforcements are rapidly arriving. The increasing cold makes the prospect of a winter campaign doubtful, as military movements now would be attended with great difficulty. Fuel and forage are both scarce and dear.

Garrison Holding Out.
Chefoo, Nov. 10.—A junk which left Port Arthur on Nov. 7 has arrived here, bringing the news that the garrison up to that time had repulsed all Japanese attacks.

The President Will Be Sustained by Great Majority.

PARKER TALKS

Defeated Candidate Issues Statement to His Followers.

Esopus, N. Y., Nov. 10.—Judge Parker has given to the press an open letter addressed "To the Democracy of the Nation," in which he thanked those in charge of his campaign work and declared that the people will soon realize that "the tariffed trusts are absorbing the wealth of the nation." He said that when that time comes the people will turn to the Democratic party for relief.

In this letter Judge Parker says he will never seek a nomination for public office. He discusses the difficulties encountered by the Democrats in making their campaign this year, and makes suggestions regarding harmony in the party. In conclusion the judge says that in the presence of defeat he does not hesitate to say that in his opinion the great moral question that confronts the Democrats is "shall the trusts and corporations be prevented from contributing money to control or to aid in controlling elections?"

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 10, 1904

ANDERSON PERCIEFIELD proved to be a vote getter. He made an admirable canvas.

DAVE HILL said he would retire from politics after the election. The people have registered their consent.

No one ever takes the Indianapolis Sentinel seriously and now that the election is over it will be the exception if anybody takes it at all.

HON. JOHN C. CHANEY, who will represent the Second district in Congress after March 4, will be a big improvement over Robert Meirs.

The friends of Captain Gilbert congratulate him over his splendid victory in the Twelfth district. He will be a useful man in congress.

POLITICALLY speaking Carl Wood and Tom Honan will feel mighty lonesome in the state legislature, for there will be very few Democrats there.

Now that the election is over we will have more time to give to the news columns of the REPUBLICAN which have been in a measure neglected for a few weeks.

THE Democratic party cannot be very proud of Tom Taggart's political leadership. He can now retire to his French Lick resort, which got considerable free advertisement during the campaign.

THERE are no better Republicans to be found than the Republicans of Jackson county. In this election of 1904 they gave a good account of themselves. And they will do still better the next time.

AND just think of Missouri casting her electoral vote for Roosevelt. When that report first came it was such a surprise that nearly every body said, "I am from Missouri; you will have to show me."

TOM TAGGART promised to give Parker the electoral vote of Indiana, but he made the promise without the consent of the Hoosier people. Yet, the New York crowd—Hill, Belmont, Sheehan, et al.—are not in position to twist him about not keeping his word.

ONE of the strong points in the election was the fact that John Hay would likely remain at the head of the state department. Mr. Hay is the recognized leading diplomat of the world today and the American people feel perfectly safe with John Hay at the helm.

BRYAN is smiling over the defeat of Parker and is saying in substance, "I told you so." He never did believe Parker could be elected and besides, judging from what he said early in the campaign, he did not want him elected. He can now go ahead with his "reorganization" that he promised he would make.

THE result of Tuesday's balloting was astounding, even to the most sanguine of the republican managers. Confident as they were of success, they were not prepared for the astonishing figures which followed the closing of the polls, bringing into the republican column not only all of the states they had claimed as safe for their candidates, but, every state classed as doubtful and even Missouri is now added to the republican column with about 15,000 majority for Roosevelt.

Music Teacher

From school children we get the information that the school board has employed Prof. Arthur Mason, of Columbus, to teach music in the public schools. If we get the information correct he is to spend Wednesday of each week in the Seymour schools. Prof. Mason has achieved success at Columbus as a teacher of music.

JUDGE MONTGOMERY

Given a Surprise by Friends and Neighbors.

Hon. O. H. Montgomery, who on Tuesday was elected supreme judge, was given a happy surprise Wednesday evening by a great crowd of his friends and neighbors.

Late in the afternoon the appropriateness of a call on him in the evening at his home and extending congratulations was suggested by H. E. McDonald. The word was passed around as well as possible in the short time left, no public announcement being made by the papers as the plan was to take Judge Montgomery by surprise. The plans were carried out successfully.

At 8 o'clock the band and drum corps were out and with about five hundred citizens marched to the residence of Judge Montgomery. On the way there was an abundance of fire works turned loose, making a beautiful display. Flags were in evidence all along the line. At the residence there was more music and a further display of fire works.

Judge Montgomery appeared on the front veranda much surprised at the demonstration. When quiet was restored Hon. John M. Lewis, in his usual happy and eloquent manner, extended to Judge Montgomery the congratulations of his neighbors and his friends here at home over his election to the high and honorable position of supreme judge.

Judge Montgomery responded, expressing his deep appreciation of the call and the demonstration in his honor. The fact that he had all along received the cordial support of his home people and now that received their hearty congratulations was very gratifying to him. He spoke for several minutes of the great party victory throughout the country, and said in substance that the Republicans had won because they deserved victory.

At the conclusion of his response there were three cheers for Montgomery and then nearly everybody went in and shook hands with him and congratulated him personally. The citizens of Seymour all extend congratulations to Judge Montgomery.

WEST REDDINGTON.

We extend a welcome to our East Rockford correspondent.

Horace Buntin moved into James Marsh's house in place of Ben Shannon as was stated in last week's issue.

Mrs. Clara A. Rapp, of Carlisle, arrived here Monday to visit relatives and friends for several weeks.

Arthur French, of Seymour, our new mail carrier on route No. 9 was through here taking the names of his patrons one day last week.

James Foist will move into the house recently vacated by Horace Buntin, soon.

Rev. C. C. Redgrave, of Chicago will preach at Reddington Christian church next Saturday night and Sunday.

Chas. Smith made his delivery of fruit trees at James Marsh's store last Wednesday.

Raymond Haskett, son of Blair Haskett died at their home Friday morning Nov. 4, of typhoid fever aged 9 years, 1 month and 18 days. He was a bright boy and will be greatly missed by schoolmates and friends.

The father and other relatives have the sympathy of the entire community in their bereavement.

HOUSTON.

We wish to correct an error in regard to the school attendance which appeared in last week's paper. The enrollment in the upper room for the first month was 34. Average attendance 30 and in the primary room 30, average attendance 26.

A Miss Robertson and a Miss Woodmansee, of Brownstown, spent Sunday with Myrtle Woodmansee, our primary teacher here.

Geo. Bean, of Terre Haute, formerly of this place was around Monday shaking hands with old friends.

Several from here attended church at Buffalo Saturday night.

Several from here went to Seymour Saturday to hear Chas. W. Fairbanks speak.

Myrtle Woodmansee was a visitor at Seymour Tuesday.

OAK GROVE.

MAJORITIES INCREASING.

Greater Landslide Than First Returns Indicated.

The Republican landslide is growing in proportions as the belated returns come in. Even Missouri has gone for Roosevelt and Fairbanks. There is nothing for Parker only in the south.

Roosevelt's popular plurality is over a million and a half, nearly twice as that for McKinley in 1900.

Congress is overwhelmingly Republican. Parker proved the weakest candidate the Democrats ever nominated.

Indiana has an enormous majority, which is still estimated at 75,000.

Enormous gains have been made throughout the Fourth district, except in Jefferson county.

Dixon's majority for congress is close and he is said to be very nervous lest the official count will show Perciefield's election.

Jackson county made a clear gain on the national ticket of 334 votes. Parker's majority in the county is 720 while Bryan in 1900 carried the county by 1,054.

Kern's plurality for governor is only 692. Dixon's majority for congress is reported to be 799.

The pluralities for the county ticket are above the national and state tickets, but show a loss of 150 to 300 over the vote of four years ago.

Honan's majority is 804. Heller for treasurer has a majority of 729 and Wacker for auditor has a majority of 720.

The official vote will be published in the REPUBLICAN later.

Don't Blindfold Yourself

By neglecting an opportunity of so much importance. We don't care how conservative you may be, there cannot be any barrier between us, the record of our work, the past year considered. If you have eye sight troubles, headaches, which come from eye strain, recurring sore eyes that you attributed to cold, if you don't see well, come to us now before we go to Indianapolis. Ask your neighbors how satisfied our services have been. Your money back if not. Mr. and Mrs. Harsch, Eye Sight Specialists.

SHIELDS.

John Pillman, has returned home after several weeks visit near Terre Haute.

CAUSE FOR GRATIFICATION

Chairman Goodrich Not Unnaturally Pleased With the Result.

Indianapolis, Nov. 10.—Chairman Goodrich has returned to his home in Winchester to take a much-needed rest. The size of the victory, while a source of much surprise to him, was also a source of extreme gratification. It is the greatest victory the Republicans have ever achieved, and naturally he is elated that it was under his leadership. He has not had time to analyze the vote, but he is confident that the Republicans got out their own vote better than ever before and that there were thousands of Democrats who did not go to the polls. Thousands of the Democrats, he is sure, voted for Roosevelt. Goodrich predicted that if the same ratio of gain is maintained throughout the state as was indicated at the hour of his departure, that President Roosevelt's plurality will exceed 75,000. Secretary Fred Sims will remain in control of the committee rooms till the first of next month.

Secretary Joe Kelley, who has been left to close up the business of the Democratic state committee, makes no effort to account for the overwhelming victory of the Republicans. He seems to regard it as a matter of course. It may be remarked that the Democratic campaign managers are probably not as chagrined as they would have been if they had only lost by a narrow margin. They are confident that the defeat was not due to any lack of organization, as organization could not get out such a tremendous vote as the Republican candidates secured. Chairman O'Brien expresses the opinion that the victory is due largely to a desire on the part of the voters to abide by present conditions. Other Democratic leaders take the same view without conceding that their principles are wrong or without yielding any of their faith in them. It may also be stated that the Republican leaders were as much surprised over the result as the Democrats. The latter will not be a factor during the next session of the legislature, as they will not have over thirty-two or thirty-three members on joint ballot. Some of the Democratic leaders predict that the Republicans will have cause to regret their cumbersome majority in the legislature, as they will be entirely responsible for all legislation enacted. It is probable that the Democratic headquarters will be closed by Saturday.

The question of when Senator Fairbanks will resign his seat in the senate is already agitating the minds of the politicians of his own party. He will resign, as a matter of course, but a member of the state committee who is close to him declared today that the senator may serve till he is ready for the inauguration the 4th of next March. The legislature would still be in session, and it could name his successor after the inauguration. But this member of the committee also remarked that there is no good cause why the Republican caucus should not proceed with the selection of his successor when the caucus meets to agree on Senator Beveridge's re-election. There seems to be no doubt but that Governor Durbin, Congressman J. A. Hemenway, Congressman Crumpacker, Harry S. New, Congressman C. B. Landis and possibly Dan G. Reid, the Richmond millionaire, will enter the race for Senator Fairbanks' place right away. The race promises to be one of the most interesting political features of recent years in Indiana.

Senator Charles Warren Fairbanks, vice president-elect, is receiving congratulations from all parts of the country, and a few from abroad. The Hon. John K. Gowdy, consul general to Paris, being one of the first to cable his best wishes. An operator has been stationed at the senator's home for two days taking the messages as they come in. Every state has sent a large number of messages wishing the senator continued prosperity in public life and expressing hearty congratulations over the result. The senator is enjoying it hugely. Strange to say, his arduous campaigning seems to have increased his physical strength. He says that he and Mrs. Fairbanks will remain here about a week before going to St. Louis to visit the World's Fair. They will then go to Yale to visit their sons, who are students, after which they will proceed to Washington to get ready for the opening of the session.

Navy Board's Recommendation. Washington, Nov. 10.—Three battleships, five scout cruisers, six torpedo boat destroyers, six torpedo boats and two squadron colliers at an aggregate maximum cost of $41,300,000 is the building program which the general board of the navy has recommended to the secretary of the navy to urge congress to authorize at its next session. Secretary Morton will refer the recommendations to the board on construction for comment and endorsement and will base his recommendation to congress on the reports of the two boards. The general board's recommendations are signed by Admiral Dewey, president of the board.

Death-List Grows. Clinton, Ind., Nov. 10.—There have been three more deaths because of the collision of a freight and a work train near Lyford, on the Chicago & Eastern Illinois railway. The death list is now five, and the condition of several of the other victims is regarded as serious. None of the victims of the wreck lived in this county, all having been brought from points by the railway company to work in the gravel pit.

You See The Days Don't Wait.

Real success only comes to those who shape their affairs, that they conform to the pace of time. The condition of your eyes may be enough to justify your not waiting any longer.

At least we cannot wait, our Indianapolis office is now open. Nothing is gained by waiting, if your eyes require attention, in fact you are the one who suffers by the delay, it must be done some time. Let us do this work and you know it will be done right. Mr. and Mrs. Harsch, Eyesight Specialists.

A barrel of pills was received at the Cox pharmacy today. The contents of the barrel is composed entirely of Nyal's Kidney pills.

Democrats from the county who came to town to hear election news, stood around speechless. Their amazement was unbounded. The landslide was not to be accounted for.

LAW OUT TODAY.

Quail Hunting Will Proceed Until January 1.

The quail law is out today and the song of the Rob White had better be muffled, because any number of men with dogs and guns have been making ready to get an early start after him. The law is out from Nov. 10 until the first of next year and there is no license required for the hunter.

The hunters, however, are required to have a permit of the man on whose land they hunt or else they may be liable to prosecution for trespass.

The game law has been explained and re-explained and still some people are misinformed. Remember you may hunt quail after November 10, without a license, providing the owner of the land on which you hunt is willing and gives his consent.

RAILROAD RUMBLINGS.

N. C. Bennett, trainmaster, and Conductor Daily, of the Panhandle, came up this morning to go hunting, but the rain was too much for them and they went back home.

August Mischler, an engineer on the B. & O. S. W. railway, went to White river in the local Tuesday to fish. In attempting to alight from the moving train he was thrown to the ground and badly hurt. His face was badly bruised and his shoulder injured. He was brought to his home in this city. He will be laid up for a few days.—Washington Democrat.

The Christmas Delineator.

The December Delineator, with its message of good cheer and helpfulness, will be welcomed in every home. The fashion pages are unusually attractive, illustrating and describing the very latest modes in a way to make their construction during the busy festive season a pleasure instead of a task, and the literary and pictorial features are of rare excellence.

A selection of love songs from the Wagner operas, rendered into English by Richard de Gallienne and beautifully illustrated in colors by J. C. Leyendecker, occupies a prominent place, and a chapter in the composers' series, relating the romance of Wagner and Cosima, is an interesting supplement to the lyrics. Many Christmas suggestions are given in needlework and the cookery pages are redolent of the Christmas feast. In addition there are the regular departments of the magazine, with many special articles on topics relating to woman's interests within and without the home.

Uncle Tom's Cabin.

Al. W. Martin's mammoth scenic and spectacular $30,000 revival of that great and everlasting celebrated masterpiece of Harriet Beecher Stowe entitled "Uncle Tom's Cabin" will be given at the opera house on November 11 is one of the grandest and most interesting and heart rendering plays ever placed upon any stage, and it will live forever in the memory of the theatre going public. Mr. Martin, the enterprising manager, has taken great pains in staging and producing the original version of Mrs. Stowe's beautiful story, every year trying to outdo the previous. The company this season numbers over sixty people, twenty of which are colored, engaged to fill out many pictures of the play and introduce their many old and new songs, dances and plantation shins.

Returns by Telephone.

The telephone has come to take a prominent place in announcing election returns, much to the satisfaction of telephone patrons.

Tuesday night the Seymour Home Telephone company served its patrons well. Manager Fred Whitcomb had made ample preparations to receive and deliver returns and by good service won the gratitude of the people who were depending upon the telephone for the news. Never before were the returns from the county handled by telephone so promptly.

The bulletins from over the country were accurate and were handled promptly.

MARRIED.

CARTER LESTER.

Everett Carter and Miss Edna Lester, of this city, were married at the M. E. parsonage at 8 o'clock Wednesday night by the Rev. J. A. Sargent in the presence of the bride and groom. After the ceremony they returned to the bride's home on south Pine street, where a reception awaited them. They departed on the 9:52 train north to their future home in Anderson. Only members of the families were present.

People are Surprised

Even after all they have heard of THELMA when they learn for themselves how fine a perfume it is they are surprised even here where they expect things to be unusually good. We try to tell the plain simple truth about everything, but it is hard to do THELMA justice without appearing to exaggerate.

The Last Week.

Senorita Laneda, the great Southern prognosticator, mind reader and palmist, will only remain in the city this week. On account of the number of people who have been obliged to wait or go away without being accommodated. We have decided to lengthen the hours for readings, which will now be mornings 7 to 12; afternoons 2 to 6; evenings 7 to 10.
